Washington, D.C. 20002

Dear Jim:

On behalf of both Bill Casey and myself, thank you for a pleasant luncheon. It was good to get to know you and your staff -- you certainly have assembled an impressive array of talent.

Good luck to you and the Times. Washington needs you.

Sincerely yours,

Director, Office of External Affairs

Dear John:

It was good to meet you yesterday, if only briefly.

STAT Give me a buzz sometime at this number [redacted] and we'll break bread and discuss several of the matters which you brought up at the luncheon yesterday.

Sincerely,

Dear Bill:

It was good to meet you yesterday -- Bill Casey and I both enjoyed our luncheon.

At your convenience, let's arrange to get together. I am very much aware of your journalistic presence and wish you the best of luck.

Sincerely yours,

Director, Office of External Affairs
